Barry Robinson

As we come to the end of 2021, I am sure you share my anticipation for the opportunities the New Year brings. With widespread vaccinations in many parts of the world, let's hope 2022 heralds the start of a new era, where we see the end of the pandemic and freedom of travel return once more.

The last two years have been a challenging time. On pages 4-7, we thank you for your patience and take you behind the scenes with your club teams to hear their stories of working through the many hurdles 2021 presented.

There have been many lessons learned throughout this pandemic, but for many, the biggest has been not to take things for granted and to prioritise travel and enjoying experiences with loved ones. This is why, on page 8, we highlight your resorts that offer larger apartment accommodation and function venues – perfect for hosting those long awaited family gatherings, celebrations and making memories with close friends.

Despite lockdowns in many regions, many club owners were still able to holiday. We celebrate these moments on pages 26 – 29 where you will find a display of the incredible photographic talent we have among our owners! Check out the amazing photos shared over the past year on our social channels using the hashtag #Wyndhamholidays. To help inspire you to keep taking incredible travel snaps, on page 17 – 23, we have collated some of the most photogenic places at your club and Associate resort destinations.

Throughout the year, your teams have continued to focus on enhancing your club experiences. On pages 39 – 41, read about upgrades at your onsite restaurants and bars, and check out the huge range of free activities now available to you at your resorts on pages 42-46.

You will find much more between the pages than all I have listed here, but before I sign off, I would like to wish you and your families a wonderful Christmas and festive end-of-year celebrations. Let us raise a glass to a much brighter year ahead – one that is filled with health, happiness, travel and adventure.

Behind the Scenes with Your Club Teams During the Pandemic

Never before have we seen such upheaval in the tourism and travel industry. The snap lockdowns, which have occurred over the past 21 months have thrown millions of people's travel plans into disarray.

WE UNDERSTAND THAT, WHILE THE LOCKDOWNS HAVE KEPT AS MANY PEOPLE AS POSSIBLE SAFE, THEY HAVE CAUSED MUCH DISAPPOINTMENT WHEN IT HAS COME TO TRAVEL.

Your Club Wyndham South Pacific teams have been working around the clock to ensure you are kept up to date, and make any necessary changes to your bookings as rapidly as possible.

For close to two years, your teams have been responding to sudden lockdowns and snap border closures. Just like you, we get no notice and, each time, it results in the rescheduling of thousands of your bookings. Staff members have been routinely working long hours, (sometimes while in lockdown themselves and also trying to home school their children), to deliver you the very best service possible.

Despite the upheaval we have seen in recent months, we remain optimistic and continue to look for ways to enhance our overall service experience, and strive to deliver extra options for you to take domestic holidays.

These include: access to Developer apartments which have not yet been transferred into the club, Associate Resort opportunities and exchange with Maui Motorhomes for Lifestyle Bronze members and above.

Impacts on your resort staff

from Warren Cullum,
Senior Vice President,
Resort Operations

Your Australian and New Zealand resort teams have shown great professionalism in the way they have handled the impacts of multiple lockdowns. With a freeze on travel across so many regions, regional leaders, General Managers and their teams have done an extraordinary job managing the financial impacts on the lockdowns and juggling staff rosters and thousands of changes to bookings. All the while, they have stayed focused on enhancements and new offerings at your resorts while continuing to deliver strong customer satisfaction scores.

Impacts on your team in Fiji

from Kaydee George,
General Manager, Club
Wyndham Denarau Island

Here in Fiji, the country's border has been closed since April 2020. Many of our wonderful Fijian staff have been with us for 10 to 20 years and the closure of the tourism industry for 18 months has had a devastating impact. To try and support our Fiji team, we have issued food vouchers, and delivered regular training and health checks so the team is knowledgeable, healthy and ready for re-opening. In addition to this, we have kept as many team members engaged as possible with a host of special projects. We have introduced over 30 new free activities and enhancements to the resort experience in readiness for re-opening. We can't wait to welcome you back to Fiji one day soon.

Voices on Social Media

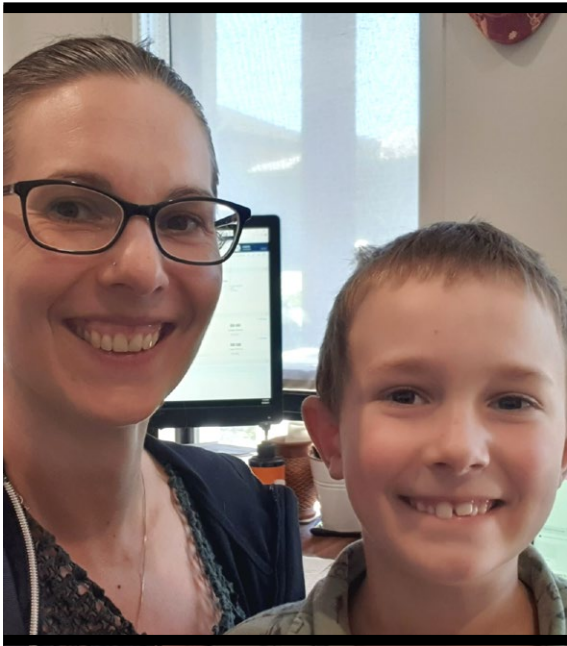

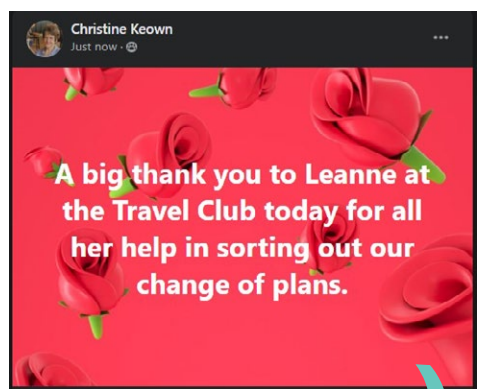

Hey Cindy,
 I'm asking you to forward the email thread to your manager as a way of giving feedback on the exceptional service you have provided to me. My track record with taking that extra step is not great, hence I am asking you to forward it to them.
 I was in a panic last night and unsure how I would work it out; terrified the flight might be earlier. It is thanks to your follow up at such an unreasonable hour, that I was able to find out what was going on.
 Again, thank you ever so much for going above and beyond.
 Noemi

Hi Jaculin,
 Just wanted to say a big 'thank you' to Wyndham and you again for all your efforts (especially as it was your Sunday) in organizing and paying for flights home at such short notice and under what must have been chaotic conditions with airlines.

Must also reiterate how great Leanne was as our tour leader, she did a fabulous job. This was our third Club Tour and all have been great trips with great leaders (Catherine and Anne previously).

Cheers
 Greg & Glenda

With Queensland in lockdown for 3 days we were due to go to Kirra for 14 days on Monday the 2/8/2021 but I would like to thank the young man in customer services for being able to reschedule our holiday.

Impacts on Travel Club

90% of these were international bookings ranging from $5,000 up to $150,000 in value per booking

Total of AU$4.17 million refunded

831 bookings held in credit to be rebooked – tour, rail, cruise and accommodation bookings

697 air tickets have been held in credit for future travel to be rebooked

Jaculin Lowien, Travel Club Manager

on the impact on your Travel Club consultants during the pandemic.

Travel Club consultants have been working diligently on Club Wyndham South Pacific owners' behalf to negotiate with airlines, rail companies, accommodation and touring suppliers. Hold times to these suppliers have increased markedly, with some involving a four to six-hour wait. This has put added pressure on the team. Policy changes for airlines and suppliers are also a daily occurrence.

Travel Club consultants make these calls to suppliers from mobile phones so as to not tie up the inbound call lines.

Since the onset of the pandemic, the team has worked long hours as a result of the extended hold times and difficulty in unravelling and cancelling bookings. Your consultants are quite often still working late into the night to fix impacted bookings or logging on to their PCs on the weekend to follow up with clients.

The Travel Club team have been meeting via online video calls every day to discuss the policies, authority waivers and best solutions to the ongoing situation.

These meetings have helped to keep the team positive during one of the most challenging times the industry has ever faced. The teamwork and drive amongst the team has been extraordinary and continues to be, as we battle the latest lockdowns and the havoc this causes on travel bookings.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE AND SUPPORT.

Working toward a brighter future

Behind the scenes, we have been negotiating contracts with new Associate Resorts to provide you with more domestic travel options while the border restrictions prevail.

No matter which way you look at it, this pandemic has been challenging, putting pressure on domestic availability when borders are open and creating thousands of cancellations and uncertainty whenever they shut. We appreciate there have been delays in the call centres as a result of so many sudden changes to the travel landscape.

We encourage you to keep using your vacation ownership to enjoy holidays as often as you can. We will always do our best to create memorable holiday experiences for you.

Again, thank you for your patience.

Instagrammable

A descriptive word for a place, item, product or scenery that attracts attention worthy of being shared on social media.

One of the best ways to make sure your holiday lives on even after you return home is to take some amazing photos to preserve it. With cameras in most phones, that has never been easier!

Mobile phone apps make displaying these photos simpler than ever. For example, Instagram allows users to edit and upload pictures and short videos, caption their posts and use hashtags and location-based geotags to index them and make them searchable by other app users.

Instagram has become the go-to place for travellers to show off iconic locations and photos from their travels.

WHITSUNDAY + SUNSHINE COASTS

CAIRNS + GOLD COAST

Whitehaven Beach, Whitsunday Island

The beach is a 7km stretch of white sand along Whitsunday Island, accessible by boat, seaplane and helicopter from Airlie Beach or Hamilton Island. You can get the best views from the platforms at Betty's Beach or Tongue Bay, and the best time to avoid crowds is mid-morning or late afternoon. Get a bird's eye view with an air tour; this will surely provide some #bestholiday snaps for your Instagram account!

STAY: Club Wyndham Airlie Beach, Whitsundays

Fairy Pools, Sunshine Coast

An instagrammable spot in the Noosa vicinity. There are two natural tidal rock pools off the track past Granite Bay – a 30-minute walk from the car park – so lather up with sunscreen. The pools are only visible at mid to low tide. The blue coloured pools against the ocean backdrop make for a great photo.

Millaa Millaa Falls, near Cairns

The falls' name is said to mean 'Plenty of Water' in the local Mamu indigenous language, although some sources say it is the word for the fruit of a rainforest vine. The falls are over 18 metres high and the pool at the bottom is suitable for swimming once you step over the rocks. You might recognise this beauty from its cameo appearance in a Herbal Essence shampoo commercial – you may even see travellers trying to take a hair-flipping photo!

STAY: Club Wyndham Cairns

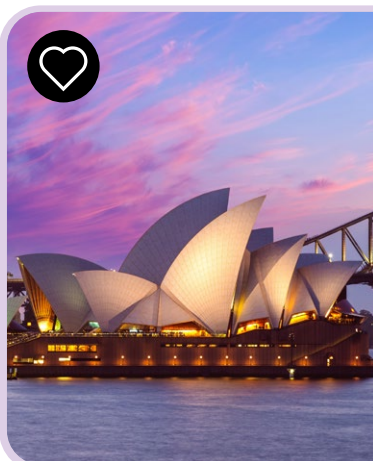

Lamington National Park, near Gold Coast

This park is World Heritage-Listed and located on the Plateau of Lamington, Queensland. The famous Australian beach is lined with surfers and sun bunnies enjoying the waves and the views. So what makes Bondi different from any other beach and one that will stand out on your Instagram? Tips to improve your travel pics!

LIGHTING. Let the light do most of the work for you. Shoot during the golden hours: an hour after sunrise and an hour before sunset. These times of day make everyone look good and eliminate harsh shadows.

FRAMING AND COMPOSITION. Your subject doesn't need to be centred in your frame. It's far more exciting and pleasing to the eye to have your topic off-centre using the rough rule of thirds.

CHANGE YOUR PERSPECTIVE. Gain a different viewpoint by lying flat on the ground or climbing up a tree!

FILL YOUR FRAME. The camera sees everything. Fill your frame with the subject by moving closer or zooming in and removing any unnecessary visual clutter.

USE FILL FLASH IN THE DAYTIME. A secret for flattering photos of people in daylight/outdoors is using your camera flash function. It is referred to as fill flash and it will fill up any unflattering shadows.

USE A TRIPOD. Tripods enable you to use long exposure shots and low light conditions – and let you star in your own photos! Mini tripods are inexpensive and can fit in a handbag or backpack.

EDIT YOUR PHOTOS. Whether you have a high-end camera or just your mobile phone, use an editing app such as Adobe Lightroom, from the App Store or Google Play.

Did you know these were originally used as bathing boxes for ladies to change into their swimwear in private during the late 1800s – early 1900s? While over 100 years old, they retain their historic charm and uniform size and, now, are a social media sensation welcoming travellers every day.

Beautiful Bruny Island

by Club Wyndham South Pacific Owner,
GRAHAM STEVENSON

The Neck Lookout, Bruny Island,
Tasmania, Australia

➔ Without a doubt, Tasmania is one of the most wonderful and diverse destinations on Earth, and our superb Club Wyndham accommodation at Seven Mile Beach, just 20 kilometres from the city of Hobart, surrounded by forests and wildlife is the absolute best.

Club Wyndham

2-bedroom Presidential Bedroom

Living Room

It has an outdoor pool and spa, tennis court, gym and games rooms, playground, barbecues, bicycles to ride and Beaches Restaurant, and it is all just minutes' walk from the ocean.

It also has the most amazing little animal Hobby Farm area, which after booking at Reception, you can visit every day at 10am (up to 12 persons per tour). You call the animals by name and amazingly, they will rush over to you, so you can feed them by hand.

The beautiful cow named Peggy not only loves to be fed but also loves to kiss you!

There are the llamas, named Winter and Polly, and three miniature goats named Jasper, Deltora and Dakota.

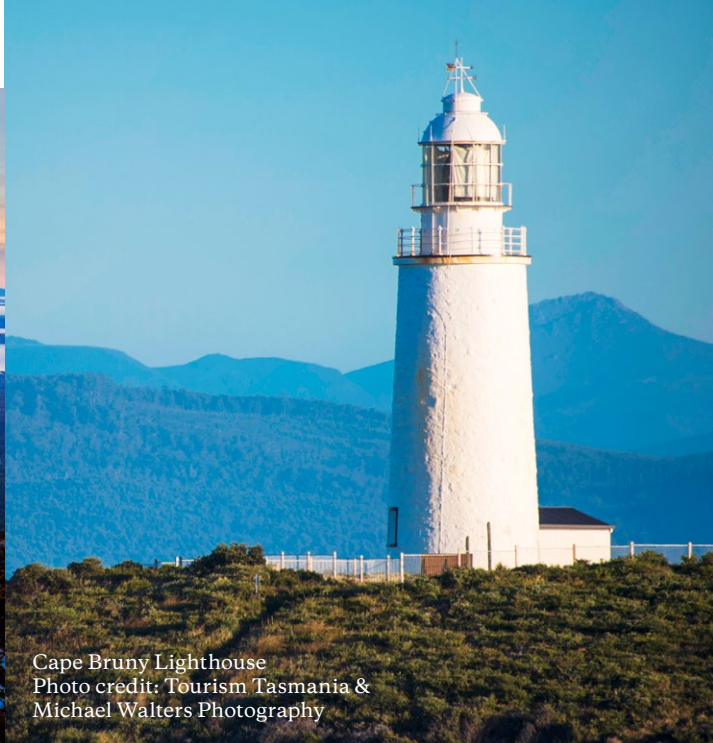

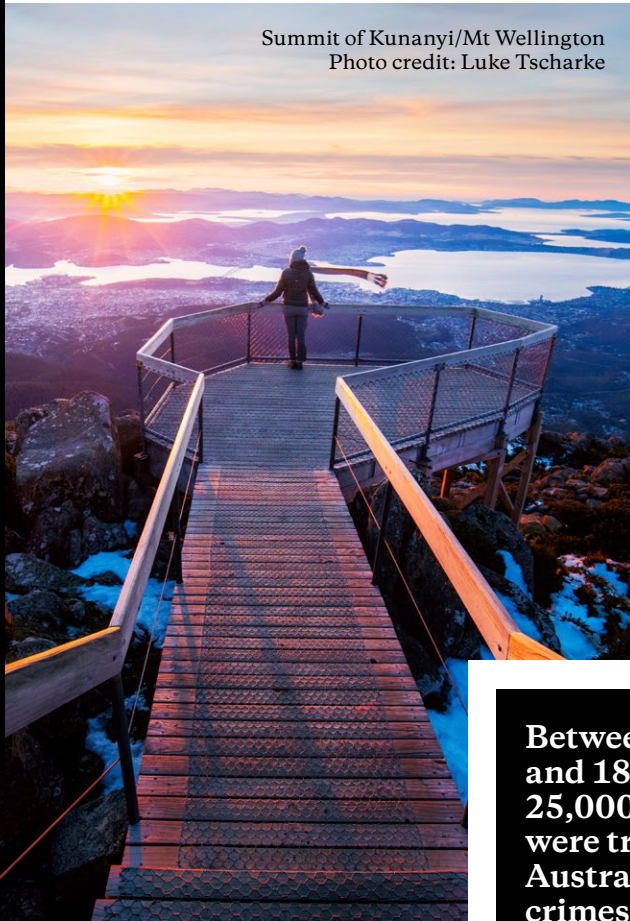

Then, there are two sheep named Shirley and Oscar and lots of Bampton chickens, so it is a very busy morning!

Between 1788 and 1853, some 25,000 women were transported to Australia for their crimes and 50% of those were sent to Van Diemen's Land.

⊕ When the island we now call Tasmania was mapped by the Dutch explorer, Abel Tasman in 1642 he named it "Anthoonij van Diemensland" after the governor of the Dutch East Indies, but later, it was renamed Van Diemen's land by the British.

Now it is an Australian state with some of the most beautiful and interesting historical cities and national parks in the world. Many sites share a history which can be traced back to some very dark days.

Between 1788 and 1853, some 25,000 women were transported to Australia for their crimes and 50 percent of those were sent to Van Diemen's Land. Men, women and children and children convicts were sent all the way from England in sailing vessels. Some were sent for the smallest of crimes, such as pickpocketing and put in gaols such as the historic Richmond Gaol, (which was built five years prior to the historic Port Arthur Gaol) or the huge Female Factory in Hobart, famous for its use of female convicts to make clothes and mend linen.

With so much to visit and see in Hobart and its surrounds, our stay was remarkably busy, and that included a drive up to Mt Wellington, a Hobart Historic Cruise, Mawson's Hut Museum, using the Red Decker Hop-On Hop-Off bus tour, a visit to Richmond and Port Arthur.

Tasmania is an Australian state with some of the most beautiful and interesting historical cities and national parks in the world.

The highlight was a fabulous full-day bus and ferry trip down to Bruny Island, with Bruny Island Safaris.

Our tour leader / bus driver, Nigel who picked us up at 5.30am from our resort in the morning and dropped us off at 6pm, gave us, and all the guests the most knowledgeable, humorous, and entertaining drive and stop-offs.

Our tour included a beautiful morning tea, which Nigel set up and included wood fired oven bread, Bruny Island

Cheese, and the best huge Tasmanian shucked oysters I have ever tasted.

We also stopped at the Bruny Island Cheese Co. and Bruny Island Honey before Adventure Bay Lookout, where the view from the top of the stairs overlooking the narrow neck was astounding.

The next stop-offs were Bruny Island Chocolate and Fudge, Bruny Island Berry Farm, and a farm just past Adventure Bay where we saw a large white wallaby grazing among the usual brown wallabies.

Lunch at the Hotel Bruny was outstanding (along with their Bruny Island Cider) before going on to Lunawanna and the last stop - Cape Bruny Island Lighthouse – and oh boy, what an amazing and historic climb to the very top of the old lighthouse, with all its past history and technical information shown and explained to us by the keeper.

So, do not worry about the cooler weather in Tasmania: it's still one of the most beautiful and friendly places to visit in the world.

GENERAL MANAGER

Spotlight

I'm Maria Salazar, your General Manager at Club Wyndham Surfers Paradise on the Gold Coast in Queensland, Australia.

I am originally from Colombia, but I now call Australia home. I joined the team in March this year, and I have loved getting to know so many club owners while you have been enjoying your Gold Coast holidays.

I am excited to let you know about some new projects the team and I have been working on at your resort. We are now pleased to offer you a host of free experiences during your stay with boogie boards, surfboards, board games, electric scooters and electric bikes on offer for your enjoyment!

After all those activities, you will have worked up an appetite! At our onsite café and bar, renamed The Promenade, we have introduced a great new menu and some fantastic daily specials. There is a delicious range of choices for dining in, or room service, including mouth-watering schnitzels and an all-day breakfast! We also have an extensive cocktail menu.

There are so many dining options on the Gold Coast, but two family favourites within a close walk of Club Wyndham Surfers Paradise include Asami Teppanyaki beneath the Q1 building, where the teppanyaki chefs get everyone laughing with their food throwing and knife juggling skills, and Alfresco Italian Restaurant. Located on the ground floor of the resort, Alfresco is equally loved among locals and visitors alike. Booking for both these establishments is essential.

All around the resort's common areas, you will notice a fresh new look. We have installed new sofas at the back of the restaurant, umbrellas on the balcony and new heaters for winter, which have really lifted the aesthetic of the space.

There is a spa and gym at the resort and the covered recreation deck is a haven for relaxing and features alfresco seating and barbecues. This area has also had a revamp with the introduction of new day beds, and a synthetic grassed area with beanbags and an 85-inch big screen TV.

By the resort pool, we have installed gorgeous new beach umbrellas and furniture to make relaxing poolside even more enjoyable. The sound acoustics of the pool have also been improved, so you can now hear music underwater! An additional windbreak has been installed for extra comfort poolside and there are floating bean bags for the pool.

When holidaying with us here at Club Wyndham Surfers Paradise, be sure to take advantage of the GLink tram. The tram stop is right outside the resort doors and The GLink can take you to destinations including Broadwater Parklands, Main Beach, Broadbeach, Pacific Fair and other parts of the Gold Coast too.

Of course, no trip to the Gold Coast is complete without simply enjoying our gorgeous beaches, whether taking a dip between the flags or a leisurely morning stroll to breathe in the sea air. Your range of well-appointed one and two-bedroom club apartments here at the resort offer the perfect launch pad to enjoy Australia's favourite holiday destination.

Our friendly team at Club Wyndham Surfers Paradise cannot wait to welcome you again soon.

Club Wyndham South Pacific's inventory in Japan is structured in a different way and detailed in the table below. Through the club's ownership of points within Sundance Resort Club, Club Wyndham South Pacific owners can access all Sundance's 16 resorts and apartments in Japan. These resorts are also utilised by Club Wyndham Asia members and, of course, Sundance Resort Club owners.

The arrangement enables Club Wyndham South Pacific owners to select from an array of room types (subject to availability). Bookings at Japanese resorts need to be made by calling Owner Services.

This inventory is displayed separately as Japanese apartments and do not traditionally conform to one, two or three-bedroom formats, but are large rooms with multiple beds. Some apartments offer raised Western-style bedding, while others offer futon-style bedding that is customary in Japan.

The pool decking has been made larger and additional pool loungers added along with side tables.

The rooftop garden has also been enhanced; a fresh lick of paint has refreshed the outer walls and new pool signage installed.
